1. Justification
2. Functional Statement
3. Organizational Charts (Current & Proposed)
4. Authorization Change Request

Justification

Activation of Detachment 6

The following justification is provided according to AFI 38-101.

1. What is the proposed action?

Propose the activation of Detachment 6, Air Force ISR Agency, at Wright-Patterson AFB, OH.

2. Why is this action needed? What are the expected benefits?

Action is requested due to growth of Operating Location Dayton, requiring an on-site commander. The detachment will assume the HUMINT operations mission and will remain under the chain of command of AF ISR Agency/A3. The detachment is the second phase of the HUMINT program development. The intention is to transition the detachment into a squadron during the third phase.

3. What is the structure of the new organization?

Current and proposed organizational charts are attached.

4. How does the structure compare with the standard structure and nomenclature?

The proposed structure is in compliance with AFI 38-101.

5. Are standard data code/data element changes required? If so, explain. No.

6. What are the potential impacts on other organizations?

There are no potential impacts on other organizations.

7. What is the impact the organization request has on unit history?

None. Detachments do not have a history.

8. What is the cost of the request in terms of dollars and resources?

Cost for activation is minimal. Unique letterhead, flags, emblems, etc do not apply. PMsg has been created by AF ISR Agency/ASC to identify and monitor progress on this standup.

9. If proposing a major unit change, what other similar units in the command are affected. What other similar units in the Air Force or Air Reserve Components are affected?

This is not a major change and no other units would be affected.
