I am finding a solution to the gun park thing. The other tanks will reach the Australia mill at dawn. Sometime during the day we will decide the best time to move them.

Augusto [Martínez Sánchez] will remain at the Australia mill. I shall have to leave for Havana in a little while. I shall be in constant communication with you. Send me news constantly on how the operations are going.

Forward!

P.S. I still haven't received any news after the piece of paper informing me that the enemy was reducing its volume of fire.
