NSC subpoena

items requested fell into two categories:

- intelligence material originating from DIA, CIA, and NSA provided to the White House Sit Room during the October 1973 MidEast War and the 1974 Cyprus crisis. This material was also requested from the individual agencies and has been supplied by those agencies to the committee.

- estimates and reports provided to the President by the National Security Council regarding these two events. This material has not been supplied.

SUMMARY: 193 documents provided.

*DIA DOCUMENTS RESPONSIVE TO SUBPOENA:

- 13 Intelligence Summaries concerning the 1973 Middle East War
- 14 Defense Attache messages from Cyprus concerning the 1974 Cyprus crisis
- 33 Defense Attache messages from Greece concerning the 1974 Cyprus crisis
- 28 Defense Attache messages from Turkey concerning the 1974 Cyprus crisis
- 7 Defense Intelligence Agency daily summaries concerning the 1974 Cyprus crisis
- 2 Defense Intelligence Agency daily bulletins concerning the 1974 Cyprus crisis
- 4 National Military Intelligence Center daily briefing messages concerning the Cyprus crisis

*The Intelligence Summaries and Bulletins satisfied the requirement for current Defense Intelligence Summaries and Situation Reports, respectively. There were no DoD Estimates published during the period relating to either the Middle East War or the Cyprus crisis. The National Military Intelligence Center daily briefings on the Middle East War were not provided as they had been destroyed according to existing policies regarding the destruction of such materials. Similar briefing materials for Cyprus were provided since computer retrieval procedures became available in 1974.
