SUSQUEHANNA 7-5000

November 1, 1962

You may recall that when we met in New York in October of 1960, I requested an interview with you and you told me I could have one. However, as it turned out, you left the country before it could be arranged.

Considering the present state of the world crisis, wouldn't this be an ideal moment for you to speak to the American people. With your consent, I would like to journey to Havana at once and film an hour long television interview, that would appear all over the country through the American Broadcasting Company television network.

You may remember that I am the journalist whom Khrushchev granted a two hour exclusive interview here in New York in October of 1960.

I do hope you will permit me to come to Havana and conduct this interview... an interview I believe could be an extremely important one.

I shall eagerly await word from you.

Most cordially,

Lisa Howard
