N $\frac{1}{2}$ SW $\frac{1}{4}$;
Sec. 30, NE $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$.

The areas described aggregate 1,168 acres.

2. Until 10:00 a.m. on September 18, 1962, the State of New Mexico shall have (1) a preferred right of application to select the lands described, in accordance with subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851, 852), and (2) a preferred right to apply for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions under any statute or regulation applicable thereto of any of the lands required for a right-of-way for a public highway or as a source of materials for the construction and maintenance of such highways, in accordance with the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, supra.

3. This order shall not otherwise be effective to change the status of the lands until 10:00 a.m. on September 18, 1962. At that time the said lands shall be open to the operation of the public land laws generally, subject to valid existing rights and equitable claims, the requirements of applicable law, rules and regulations, and the provisions of any existing withdrawals.

4. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to locations under the United States mining laws subject to the provisions of the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 682; 30 U.S.C. 621).

5. Any disposals of the lands described in this order shall be subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, supra, as specified by the Federal Power Commission in its determinations.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

JOHN A. CARVER, Jr.,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Title 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce

SUBCHAPTER C—REGULATIONS AFFECTING SUBSIDIZED VESSELS AND OPERATORS

[General Order 95, Rev.]

PART 293—INVENTORIES OF VESSELS COVERED BY OPERATING- DIFFERENTIAL SUBSIDY AGREEMENTS

Part 293 is hereby revised to read as follows:

Sec.
293.1	Purpose.
293.2	Definitions.
293.3	Inventory requirements.
293.4	Responsibilities and participation.
293.5	Scope and evaluation of inventories.
293.6	Certifications.
293.7	Accounting treatment.
293.8	Effective date.
293.9	Conflict of orders.

AUTHORITY: §§ 293.1 to 293.9 issued under sec. 204, 49 Stat. 1987, as amended; 46 U.S.C. 1114.

§ 293.1 Purpose.

The purpose of this part is to establish the policy and procedure to be followed by the Maritime Administration, and by the subsidized steamship operators in the accomplishment of inventories required on vessels approved for operation under Operating-Differential Subsidy Agreements and the application of the results thereof to the accountings required to be rendered thereunder.

§ 293.2 Definitions.

(a) Stores and supplies. As distinguished from expendable equipment and spare parts are those articles and commodities used and consumed in the day-to-day operation of a vessel by the operation and maintenance of machinery and equipment; the maintenance of clean and sanitary conditions; the feeding of passengers, officers, and crew; and stocked for the use and convenience of passengers, officers, and crew, more particularly defined as follows:

(1) Consumable stores. Those articles, commodities, and supplies required in the operation of vessels and the living and berthing of passengers, officers, and crew, including, but not limited to, the following general classifications:

(i) Articles and commodities that are completely consumed in their initial usage (paints, soaps, medicines, metals, oils, greases, chemicals, gases, fuel for auxiliary machinery and equipment, etc.).

(ii) Articles and commodities whose term of usage or life is so short that after initial use, such items cannot be recovered for reissue or are practically valueless for sale or transfer (paintbrushes, brooms, mops, rope (except hawsers) and cordage, etc.).

(iii) Articles and commodities of general use which, after installation, lose their identity and become part of a general installation or a part of a larger piece of equipment (pipe, pipefittings and valves, electrical fittings, fire bricks, and tile, etc.).

(iv) Items of the above or similar nature which, in general commercial practice, are ordered for and stocked aboard a vessel on the basis of the estimated needs for the next round voyage, but excluding spare parts for main and auxiliary machinery and ship's equipment which are maintained for emergency repairs at sea.

(2) Subsistence stores. Stores and supplies maintained for the feeding of ship's personnel and passengers, such as cereals and cereal products, dairy products, fish, fruits, groceries, meats and meat products, poultry, vegetables, and beverages.

(3) Stow chest. Those stores of clothing, toilet articles and supplies, smoking supplies, confections, etc., maintained for sale or issue to ship's personnel and passengers, usually as a charge against wages or for cash.

(4) Bar stock. Alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages and related supplies maintained for sale to passengers.

(5) Fuel. For the main propulsion machinery.

(b) Expendable equipment. Those articles, outfitting and furnishings, portable, semiportable, and detachable used in equipping a ship for service and used in the normal day-to-day maintenance and operation of the ship that are in addition to and apart from all articles or fittings permanently incorporated in a vessel's hull prior to its being equipped and apart from items classified as stores and supplies or spare parts. Such items are subject to casual or gradual deterioration and replacement, but are not readily consumed by usage and include, but are not limited to, the following general classifications:

(1) Steward's equipment. Articles and detachable fixtures of an expendable nature utilized in connection with the living and berthing of passengers and crew such as cooking utensils, galley equipment, silverware, crockery, glassware, linens, mattresses and pillows, draperies and curtains, rugs, furniture, pianos, office machines, safes, cleaning equipment, printing, upholstery and joiner shop equipment, entertainment radio and television receivers, clocks, electric fans, windscoops, and port screens.

(2) Deck equipment. Articles and detachable fixtures of gradual deterioration utilized in connection with the general operation and upkeep of the vessel other than machinery such as hawsers, towing and mooring wire cables, binoculars, chronometers, sextants, portable machinery, tools, anchors except installed bower anchors, lifesaving and fire and damage control equipment, and removable hatch covers.

(3) Engine equipment. Articles and detachable fixtures of gradual deterioration utilized in connection with the operation and day-to-day maintenance of main propulsion and auxiliary machinery, equipment, and electrical installations of the vessel such as hand, portable power or specialized engine tools, portable or detached pressure, vacuum and testing gauges, electrical testing equipment.

(c) Spare parts. All items of spare and replacement parts carried for the specific purpose of maintaining and repairing mechanical and electrical equipment, machinery, mechanical controls, electric generators, motors, electrical control devices, switchboards, auxiliaries, accessories, etc., including, but not limited to, those spare and replacement parts required by the American Bureau of Shipping and other classification or regulatory bodies.

(d) Installations. Items of a permanent or detachable character, generally nonportable, which are permanently installed as a part of the vessel and generally necessary for the operation of the vessel for its intended purposes. Such items are not required to be recorded on inventories accomplished as provided herein, but if recorded shall be considered as general information only. Such items are as listed under the following general classifications:

(1) Main machinery. The central propulsion plant and main electric generating equipment and all of the machinery and operating components associated therewith.

(2) Auxiliary machinery. Items of machinery and equipment, nonportable in character and permanently installed, together with associated operating components which are required in and necessary to the operation of the vessel, such as, steering engines, winches, windlasses, purifiers, condensers, heat extractors, blowers, vent fans, pumps, refrigeration machinery, main radios, gyro compasses.

(3) Permanent equipment. Items permanently installed aboard a vessel and necessary for its general operation which are generally nonportable in character, such as lifeboats, inflatable life rafts, rafts, davits, cargo booms and cranes, quick opening hatch covers, bower anchors and anchor chains, fire and access doors, ventilators.

(e) Unbroached as applied to consumable stores. In general, all stores that at time of inventory are in new condition; i.e., have not been used and have not lost any of their original value through age, rust, decay, or improper stowage. With respect to the contents of opened packages and containers, items normally supplied in bulk shall be considered first on the basis of condition and if meeting the above qualifications, the quantities found shall be considered unbroached. With respect to
