

File

Mr. President the following telephone message from Mr. Schlesinger was received at 5:15p.m. Schlesinger will be at the Army War College for two hours.

This is reference to the matter we discussed by telephone earlier today. The Saturday Evening Post has already sent out advance copies on the Cuban story.

1. The Post letter begins "The Controversial and Hitherto Unrevealed Role Played by U. S. Ambassador Adlai Stevenson During the Height of the Cuban Crisis, His reveal in an Exclusive and Behind the Scenes Report in The Saturday Evening Post based on an exclusive interview, the report provides an authoritative account of the top secret session of the National Security Council Executive Committee.
2. Bromley Smith is checking the Executive Committee minutes and will report to you in the morning.
3. Fritchey will await word from Smith or Salinger as to whether Smith's research should cause any change in the statement we discussed over the Telephone earlier today, beyond those you suggested at the time.